

This chapel was constructed using ribbed vaults resting on carved bases. The one on the left, on entering, represents a hand supporting the vault and also, symbolically, the hand of God supporting the Church. There are several pieces of furniture in walnut from the end of the 18th Century (listed in 1974), in all probability coming from the church of the Penitents.

